

Dear Sirs,

I am utterly disgusted by a media conglomerate using our airwaves to try to influence an election by showing a biased documentary critical of Kerry's character.

This documentary is clearly not factual. It was created by ultra conservatives.

I feel that Sinclair is misusing the public airwaves during an election year and should be censured or required to give equal time to "news" based from viewpoints other than neo-conservative.

Thanks,

Dorothea Izzo